

Professional Development Workshops for Teachers

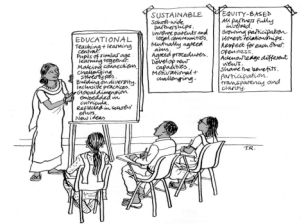

Is your school interested in developing a global dimension learning partnership with a school in Africa, Asia, Latin America or the Caribbean? If you are we would like to invite you to the following day workshop...

Introduction to Global School Partnerships

Tide~ Centre, Millennium Point, Birmingham

Tuesday 29th June 2010, 9:45am-3:30pm

This is an introductory workshop exploring the principles, educational benefits, practicalities and viability of global school partnerships. A local school with an established global school partnership will also tell you about their experience.

The workshop is for school staff who are interested in establishing, or who have just initiated, a global school partnership. The workshop explores:

- motives for partnerships
- partners' perceptions of each other and how this affects learning
- global dimensions in the curriculum
- partner-finding
- preparation for partnership.

You will have the opportunity to discuss the pros and cons of global school partnerships and network with colleagues.

Places are free and lunch is included. If you have particular needs which may make participating in this workshop difficult please let us know. We will do our best to enable your participation on the day.
